

Application for Kenya Tourist eVisa

Website visa application <http://evisa.go.ke/evisa.html>

Single entry visa USD $51 paid online with Visa/Mastercard. The processing time is 2 business days for the e-Visa. Once it is approved, the eVisa will be made available to your eVisa account. You must print a copy to carry with your passport and bring it along when you travel to Kenya.

When you arrive in Kenya, you must have your eVisa printout with your passport. An eVisa to Kenya once issued is valid for 3 months before you travel. Once you present yourself to immigration control at the port of entry, you may be issued with a stay period not exceeding 90 days, which may be renewed for a further 90 days at the immigration headquarters. The maximum number of days a visitor may stay in Kenya is 6 months.

Tourist Visas:

Kenyan Immigration has instituted a strict visa policy whereby all visitors are strongly encouraged to obtain visas by using an online system, though visas are available upon arrival at international ports of entry including Nairobi's Jomo Kenyatta International Airport.

- A passport with at least two blank pages, six months' validity, and a visa are required to enter Kenya.
- Single-entry visas are available upon arrival at Kenyan airports; however, Kenyan Immigration plans to end visas upon arrival in the near future.
- Multiple-entry visas must be applied for prior to traveling to Kenya.
- Obtain the latest information on visas, as well as any additional details regarding entry requirements, from the Embassy of Kenya, 2249 R Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20008, telephone (202) 387-6101, or the Kenyan Consulates General in Los Angeles and New York City.

- You should have proof of yellow fever immunizations, or you may be denied entry.
